A CLEAR MIND

An office in the attic has its own unique character but measures must be taken to make sure that excessive heat does not make us sweat away on those sweltering days. A good solution to this problem are FAKRO roller and awning blinds which effectively protect the rooms from overheating. An unobstructed view will be provided by FAKRO high pivot windows, L-shaped combination windows or the so-called balcony window Galeria. A sense of comfort in the office translates into higher quality and efficiency of our work.

A SHOWCASE OF HOUSE

The hallway and staircase give a first taste of our house. Their design communicates our taste and likings. These are the places in which we keep our clothes, shoes and sometimes - especially in winter, store bikes. It is important that these areas stay ordered, well-lit and convey a warm atmosphere right from the threshold of our house.
